Applying for the Waitlist	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Decide on an appropriate service option (center/family childcare/ home base option) that meets your location needs and child’s age. The service options for the county can be found in the program brochure of each county 2. Contact the service option and ask to apply for the waitlist. This is a good opportunity to ask the program staff question you may have about the program. You will be scheduled for an appointment. 3. Attend your appointment with program staff and bring all your required documents. 4. If you are missing documentation, make sure to follow up with the program staff who took your application. 5. You will receive a waitlist letter-confirming placement on the waitlist.
